⬚ Access Trend Dashboard from the Exalate Console

Exalate administrators can now securely access a dedicated trend dashboard directly from the UI. This dashboard provides insights into synchronization activity over time, helping admins monitor and understand their node's performance. The link opens in a new tab and is available only to authorized users. More details here.

In this release, we've resolved the following issue and implemented improvement:

Bug fixes

- XLT-6880 - Sync Fails Due to Alphanumeric Comment ID Parsing.
